

GREAT HARVEST!

CASTELLO COLLE MASSARI

MONTECUCCO SANGIOVESE RISERVA 2013

GAMBERO ROSSO

"Poggio Lombrone conquers us by virtue of the intense nose combining classic hints of ripe red fruits, spicy and balsamic notes. The mouth is solid, tannins fresh and lively, sapid and mineral. Extreme elegance."

WINE ADVOCATE

"Beautifully polished and bright, the 2013 Poggio Lombrone is a pure expression of Sangiovese from the wild and rustic hills of the Montecucco appellation. A beautiful creation with an impressive sense of cherry brightness and purity of fruit."

JAMES SUCKLING

"A firm red wine with plum and berry character. Medium to full body and silky tannins. Made from Organic Grapes."

FALSTAFF

"Sparkling ruby red. Fine nose with lots of fruit, after cherries and plums. Dark fruit on the palate, opens with powerful tannins"

VINUM

"Multi-layered bouquet with raspberries, cloves and leather combines polish and character in the mouth. Acidity and tannins in perfect harmony, incredibly long aftertaste. Convinces with its opulent structure."
