

GREAT HARVEST!

POGGIO DI SOTTO BRUNELLO DI MONTALCINO 2011

ROBERT PARKER

"The 2011 Brunello di Montalcino offers an immediate sense of generosity and openness that makes it attractive on first impact. Bold tones of dark cherry, plum, spice and resin rise to the top with enthusiasm and intensity. The wine holds back nothing. It shows a velvety texture that is rich and enduring. All the while, this Brunello remains faithful to its time honored traditions and its territorial roots"

WINE ENTHUSIAST

"Scented with iris, violet, rose, perfumed berry and a balsamic note, this shows remarkable balance and finesse for such a scalding vintage. The juicy palate delivers crushed black cherry, black raspberry, chopped mint and anise wrapped in polished tannins"

VINOUS

"The wine is rich, sensual and inviting. Wonderfully open-knit and polished, the 2011 Brunello is one of the most intriguing wines of the year. High-toned aromatics, with a touch of volatile acidity, give the wine much of its unique personality. Macerated cherries, licorice, hard candy new leather and mint are all pushed forward. Readers should expect a somewhat eccentric Brunello"

GAMBERO ROSSO

"The aromatic imprint of juicy red fruit, roots and medicinal herbs are in full "Poggio di Sotto style" as well as the delicate and delightful mouthfeel which is well balanced with the tannins"
